Dear colleagues, we are appealing to you with a proposal to take part in the International journalistic festival and photo exhibition that will be held in the frame of the XII Media-Forum of young journalists «Dialogue of Cultures»!

The festival and photo exhibition are united by a common theme «Here I live». Media projects, short films and photographs (single or series) are welcomed to a selection. These two events, held in the frame of the Forum's work, give to its participants an opportunity to get to know better traditions, lifestyle and changes that are happening in the lives of Russia, CIS countries and EU.

We hope, that the theme of our contest will help you not only to learn and understand the traditional way of life, household, surrounding world and the life of our far and close neighbors, but also will allow to develop the practical intercultural dialogue at the practical and professional level.
